NOTE VERBALE DATED 14 FEBRUARY 1992 FROM THE PERMANENT MISSION OF SENEGAL TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

The Permanent Mission of Senegal to the United Nations presents its compliments to the United Nations Secretariat and, with reference to its letter of 28 January 1992, has the honour to state the following:

Senegal, which does not export weapons, is deeply committed to the peaceful settlement of international disputes.

In the case of the Somali crisis, the Senegalese Head of State, in his capacity as Acting Chairman of the Organization of the Islamic Conference, is seeking, with the help of the United Nations, to find a positive and lasting solution to the conflict.

With regard to the Security Council's request for humanitarian assistance to the population of Somalia, Senegal is considering, within the scope of its limited resources, ways of complying with this request. In the meantime, Senegal hopes that the international community will respond positively to this appeal on behalf of the people of Somalia and provide them with relief from this tragedy.
